Metropolis;
AND
Of the Ancient and Renowned Town of COLCHESTER, the Place of my Nativity, and elsewhere within His Majesties Dominions.

L. C.
Humbly Dedicates these his Astronomical and Astrologica Labours in Testimony of hi relative Respects.

Courteous Reader,

HE Heavenly and Noble Science of Astrology, being by both Sexes, who pretend knowledge in the said Art abused, and by their erroneous judgement by such as know it not scandalized; I took this opportunity to say something in its behalf, although 'tis sufficiently done by the hands of the Nations and my very Worthy Friends, Mr. William Lilly, and Mr. John Gadbury, and others for brevity omitted.

As to its Antiquity, Iosephus tells us plain, Filii autem Seth disciplinam Rerum Cœlestium & ornatum earum primitus inve-nerunt. The sons of Seth first invented the Learning concerning the Heavenly Bodies; further tells you, That he saw the Art of Astrologie graven in stone in Assyria, done by Seth before the Flood; and without doubt the wise men that came out of the East to worship Christ, were great Astrologers, and this renders it probable, if not evident, that Adam had authorized the Work, and plained their way before them, which was highly becoming his Noble and high thoughts, he initiated himself into the Practice of it; but the children of Seth ripened it into an Art or Discipline, Suidas tells us, that Seth himself invented the Hebrew Letters, and gave names to the Stars, so that this Study is as honourable as ancient; we might adde and confirm, that Adam was a man, who much studied the knowledge of the Stars, their motions about the Earth, their Risings and Settings, their Conjunctions and Oppositions, and various Relations and Aspects, and many others; The old Patriarchs followed in his Path before beaten: but willing to write something of the great necessity of the knowledge and use thereof, I forbear to enlarge; and proceed briefly to its great use in Physick, without which, as the Poets have it, Physick is imperfect; that the Stars have an especial influence upon all sublunary Bodies, is undeniable; They are named by the Hebrews Nassaloth, a word bred and born of Nazal – influere, to give influx or influence, they are Signes Morborum futurorum, foretelling future diseases: so also in sickness, foretelling the good or evil event thereof, as any experimented Physician can testifie, who judges of the Crisis in diseases by the Moon, who when she maketh a Quartile unto the place where she was at the decumbiture of the sick; that is one proper Crisis, and so from

Quartile

Quartile unto Quartile, till she comes to the place where she was upon the decumbiture, this in acute distempers; In Chronick diseases they judge by the Sun, acute diseases terminates in a month, so often as the Moon in acute diseases doth meet with assisting Planets, or the Sun in Chronick diseases, or the Planet which have predominate power over, or is Lord of the sick bodies, so often will the sick be more then ordinarily afflicted; unless the Fortunes Jupiter or Venus helps with their friendly Rays or Influence, I am confined not further to inlarge, although much more might be said to prove the necessity of the use thereof in Physick, and that those that practise Physick, ought to be well read in the Rules of Astrology, to such I bid farewel till another opportunity.

From my House at the signe of the Royal Oak in Saint Katherines Lane near the Tower of London.

Justly directed in the course of things,
By the straight rule which Observation brings,
We tell events, Gross errors haply shun,
And throughly finish what we well begun,
With wholesom Frosts the year begins, for Jove
Who's Natures Friend, doth clear the Air above.

FEBRUARY 1672

Week days

With snow or rain we may be bold to tell
That February makes the Dike to swell.
I rather judge with snow, but Mercury
Sends gales of wind near th'end, and clears th'sky.

Brings weather that will prove nor dry nor fair.
It is pleasant in the middle, but not long so,
Strange tempests rise, let it for current go.

All things beneath the Moon their Changes make,
And every one doth of like Change partake:
'Tis sultry hot, great Thunder-claps, with Rain,
May fright the Farmer from his hopes of gain.

And rain to frost, snow, rain, and frost together.
Makes it thus calm, 'tis drisling slabby weather.

Of the foure Quarters of the yeare.

The ſpring takes his begining when the Sun toucheth the firſt ſcruple of Aries, which is this yeare on the 9 day of march 57 minets paſt 4 after-noone, as you may ſee in the preceding figure who by his Glorious appearance makes the earth to ſmile coming to revive what frowning winter had almoſt deſtroyed.

This ſeaſon is by nature hot and moiſt the moſt temperate time of the year, a very convenient time to take phyſick, to unburthen nature of all ſuch humors as doe oppreſs him, either by purging, bleeding, or otherwayes, as occaſion ſhall permit, this quarter the body of man is ſubject to Feavors, Iaundies, Impoſthumes ſwellings. ſquinzes, boiles, itch, puſhes, pox, Bleeding at noſe, ſpotted-feaver. And ſuch other diſeaſes occaſioned by the Quantity, or qualitie of blood.

The Summer Quarter.

Takes his begining when the Sun toucheth the firſt ſcruple of the ſign Cancer, cauſing longeſt days and ſhorteſt nights to all on this ſide the Æquator which this year falls on the 10th day of Iune at 22 minutes paſt 7 at night.

The ſeaſon by nature is hot and dry cauſing the humors of man to be ſuitable to his own nature, fats catel, and brings all fruits to ripeneſs, increaſing the rich-mans ſtore and maketh the earth fat with the bodies of men, women and children, by reaſon of thoſe many diſeaſes now incident to nature, viz, burning Feavers, phrenſie, Inflamations, Impoſthums, ulcerations of the Lungs and bladder, heat in the Reins, the Gonorrhea, Iliack paſſion ſtrangury, and ſuch diſeaſes which proceed from cholle

The Autumn Quarter.

Takes his begining when the Sun toucheth the firſt cruple of the ſigne Libra, which falls this yeare on he 12 day of ſeptember 58 minutes paſt 10 in the morn-ng

This ſeaſon is very variable and unconſtant cauſing varme days, but cold nights, and the body of man as ncident to bad diſeaſes as at any time of the yeare, viz, Quartaine Agues, Fetvers, vertigo, Apoplexies, Fiſtulaes, luxes, Hemorrhoides, dyſenteries, paine of the back, nd ſtomack an ſide, occaſioned by wind, pains in the eins, ſtone, ſuppreſſion, palſies, convulſions, cramps, con-mptions, madnes, and deſtruction, occaſioned by melan-holly obſtruction of the ſpleen, and ſuch diſeaſes ther-y occaſioned.

The Winter Quarter.

Takes his begining when the Sun toucheth the firſt cruple of Capricorn, cauſing ſhorteſt days and Longeſt ights to all on this ſide the Æquator, and is a great nt goniſt to the Spring, a deſtroyer of the fruitfull har-eſt, and a diſgrace to ſummer, which falls this year on the o day of december 30 minutes paſt 10 at night.

This ſeaſon by nature is cold and moiſt, no great leaſure to the weary traveller, and cauſeth many ob-ructions in the bodies of old people and others, who e incident to receiver colds, Coughs, Rheums, palſies, oſies, cramps, convulſions, vertigoes, Epilepſies, Apo-lexies, cholicks, hoarſneſs, Fluxes, pain in the teeth, noiſe the ears Agues of all ſorts.

Courteous Reader.

You may find the Author hereof at home every day in the week till one of the Clock in the afternoon ſome times after, and ſpeak with him by ſeven in the morning, who by your urine or the Relation of your Illneſs, will ſatisfy you the nature of your diſtemper and its effects, and whether the diſtemper will End in Life or death.

He hath alwayes medicins ready prepared which with the Bleſſing of God works a good effect with as much ſpeed as Art will admit of Conſidering the nature of the diſeaſe, viz.

Agues and Feavers of all ſorts, Dropſies, Gouts, Conſumption, ptiſick or ſhortneſs of breath, Deafneſs, a ſpeedy cure, if curable although of Long continuance, pains in the back, or ſtomack, bowels or Loins, or in any part of the body; the foul diſeaſe or runing of the Reins, he cureth with much care and ſecreſie.

He hath a water much approved to take away freckles, and ſunburnt from the face, and cauſeth a beautiful complection.
